Parting The Waters: America In The King Years 1954-63

Taylor Branch Joe Morton C. C. H Pounder

Parting the Waters: America in the King Years, 1954-63 is a book by Taylor Branch. It is the first volume in a trilogy about the civil rights movement in the United States during the 1950s and 1960s. The book covers the years from 1954 to 1963, and it has been praised for its masterful account of the American civil rights movement. It is often considered one of the best books ever written on the subject. The book was first published in 1988 and has been widely acclaimed for its accurate and nuanced portrayal of the era, including the leadership of Martin Luther King Jr. and the role of other key figures in the movement.
